

Position: Progressive Turnout Project (PTP) Campaign Fellow

Time Commitment: 15 or 30 hours per week

Compensation: Up to $5,000 pre-tax total stipend

Start Date: 9/3/2024 (may vary by state party, campaign, or caucus)

End Date: 11/5/2024

Position Summary:

The Campaign Fellows Program aims to support PTP targeted candidates, train Fellows in the skills of effective direct voter contact, and rally Democrats to vote through door knocking.

To become a Campaign Fellow, you must first be selected by one of PTP's targeted campaigns. PTP will pay you a stipend and support your work through training and mentorship, all while you are directly embedded into the campaign's structure. This is a great opportunity for people of all backgrounds with a passion for electing Democrats to be trained in the tactics and techniques of working on a competitive campaign.

In addition to the hands-on learning and experience that comes with working on a campaign, you will have access to additional campaign-related resources through PTP.

Responsibilities:

Campaign

- Complete day-to-day campaign work, totalling up to 30 hours/week
- Increase door knocking capacity for campaign to reach more voters

Training

- Review online training materials weekly
- Attend 1-hour virtual discussion groups weekly

Administrative

- Submit a weekly report to PTP on direct voter contact metrics
- Maintain timely communications with PTP Campaign Fellows Program Staff

Qualifications (You will be a good fit if):

- You are at least 18 years of age and legally authorized to work in the USA
- You are comfortable knocking doors and talking to voters
- You are committed to the success of the campaign on which you work
- You plan to continue in your role through Election Day, November 5, 2024
- You can manage multiple tasks, relationships & responsibilities at once
- You have a Gmail account and are proficient with Google Suite products
